Something on Sale!

In honor of Valentine's day we are offering this pattern by Fancy Work on sale....

It is the pattern for the tiniest little miniature sewing treasures. The little biscornu finishes to be only about 1" x 1", and the scissor sheath fits the petite scissor. They fit into a Whitman "vintage replica tin". These we don't stock, but the designs are wonderful even on their own in a box of your choice. We have the finished piece on display, you must see it done... This sale is limited to stock on hand, but we have quite a few.

Sale price for the pattern packet is $4.00

Did you see our last newsletter?

There was a little confusion when the last newsletter was released..

We had trouble uploading it, so the computer company did it for us.

No we aren't sending out an early invitation to next year's Christmas Open house...

But the next newsletter listed, though it is dated February 08, is the correct updated newsletter...

Sorry for the confusion...
